Article 1: Definitions

In these conditions, the following definitions apply: a. Camping unit: tent, folding camper, motorhome, touring caravan, etc.; b. Pitch: any designated placement option for a camping unit as specified in the agreement; c. Tourist pitch: a pitch available for a camping unit for a period not exceeding three months; d. Entrepreneur: the company, institution, or association providing the pitch to the camper; e. Camper: the person entering into the pitch agreement with the entrepreneur; f. Co-camper: the person(s) also listed in the agreement; g. Third party: any other person, not being the camper and/or co-camper(s); h. Agreed price: the fee paid for the use of the tourist pitch; it should be noted in a price list what is not included in the price; i. Information: written or electronically provided data about the use of the rented pitch and camping unit, the facilities, and the rules regarding the stay; j. Cancellation: the written termination of the agreement by the camper before the start date of the stay; l. A dispute: when a complaint filed with the entrepreneur by the camper is not satisfactorily resolved.

Article 2: Content of Agreement

The entrepreneur provides the agreed pitch for recreational purposes, not for permanent residence, to the camper for the agreed period, giving the camper the right to place a camping unit of the agreed type for the specified persons.

The entrepreneur is obliged to provide the written information based on which the agreement is concluded to the camper in advance. The entrepreneur must promptly notify the camper in writing of any changes to this information.

If the information differs significantly from what was provided when the agreement was concluded, the camper has the right to cancel the agreement without costs.

The camper is obliged to comply with the agreement and the rules in the accompanying information. He ensures that co-campers and/or third parties visiting or staying with him also comply with the agreement and the rules in the accompanying information.

If the provisions in the agreement and/or the accompanying information conflict with the RECRON conditions, the RECRON conditions prevail. This does not prevent the camper and the entrepreneur from making individual additional agreements, which may deviate from these conditions to the camper's advantage.

The entrepreneur assumes that the camper enters into this agreement with the consent of their possible partner.

Article 3: Duration and End of Agreement

The agreement automatically ends after the agreed period, without the need for notice.

Article 4: Price and Price Changes

The price is agreed upon based on the current rates set by the entrepreneur.

If, after setting the price, an increase in costs on the entrepreneur's side occurs due to a tax increase directly related to the pitch, camping unit, or camper, these costs can be passed on to the camper, even after the agreement is concluded.

Article 5: Payment

The camper must make payments in euros unless otherwise agreed, respecting the agreed deadlines.

a. If booked more than six weeks before the arrival date and the camper fails to fulfill the payment obligation within two weeks of a written reminder, despite a prior written reminder, the entrepreneur has the right to terminate the agreement immediately, without prejudice to the entrepreneur's right to full payment of the agreed price. b. If booked six weeks or less before the arrival date and the camper fails to fulfill the payment obligation on time or correctly, the agreement ends automatically, and the camper owes compensation to the entrepreneur according to Article 6, paragraph 1. The entrepreneur must inform the camper immediately in writing or electronically.

Article 6: Cancellation

In case of cancellation, the camper pays compensation to the entrepreneur:

- In case of cancellation more than three months before the commencement date, 15% of the agreed price;
- In case of cancellation within three to two months before the commencement date, 50% of the agreed price;
- In case of cancellation within two to one month before the commencement date, 75% of the agreed price;
- In case of cancellation within one month before the commencement date, 90% of the agreed price;
- In case of cancellation on the day of commencement, 100% of the agreed price.

The compensation is refunded pro-rata if the pitch is reserved and paid for by a third party, with the consent of the entrepreneur, for the same period or part thereof.

Article 7: Use by Third Parties

The use of the pitch by third parties is only allowed with written permission from the entrepreneur. If the camper allows third parties to use the pitch without the entrepreneur's permission, the agreement is automatically terminated.

Article 8: Premature Departure by Camper

The camper owes the full price for the agreed period.

Article 9: Premature Termination by the Entrepreneur and Evacuation in Case of Emergency

The entrepreneur can terminate the agreement with immediate effect:

a. If the camper, co-camper(s), and/or third party do not comply with the obligations of the agreement, these terms, or government regulations, despite prior warning, to such an extent that the entrepreneur cannot reasonably be expected to continue the agreement. b. If the camper, despite prior warning, causes such a nuisance that the entrepreneur's business operations are disrupted.

The entrepreneur can terminate the agreement with immediate effect in case of extraordinary circumstances and extraordinary forces.

Article 10: Lawfulness and Execution

In case of disputes, a written complaint must be submitted to the entrepreneur as soon as possible, but no later than two weeks after departure. If the complaint is not resolved satisfactorily, it should be submitted in writing to the RECRON Disputes Committee.
